Jumble Sale

On Saturday 17th March we shall be having a huge jumble sale, from 11am to 1.30pm. We have masses of clothes, books, bric-a-brac, toys and games, dvds, refreshments etc. Entry is £1 (free for under 12s).

MEGA
JUMBLE
Sale

As usual we will be taking in any donations of clothes, books (good condition please), bric-a-brac, bottles, toys, games, cds, dvds, shoes, bags, curtains etc. The only things we don't take are large furniture items and electricals.

We are also looking for volunteers to help on Friday evening 16th March from 6.30pm to 8.30pm and on Saturday between 10.30am and 1.30pm. Please let the PHCA office know if you can help on either or both days.

Top of the Hill Quiz

On Friday 18th May the annual PHCA Top of the Hill Quiz will be taking place at the Community Centre. Residents will be fighting to get their street, terrace, road, mews or crescent to the top of the tree. PHCA members Dick and Sue Bird will be setting a real eclectic mix of questions, some funny, some silly, some impossible, but always great fun! The quiz takes place at 7pm for a 7.30pm start. Admission £10 which includes a glass of wine. Recruit a table of up to 8 neighbours, or just come yourself and join in with a team. Numbers are limited and tickets will be on sale from April.

Evening Open House

We have decided to stop running the evening open house programme due to low numbers.

Genevieve Fox is the author of 'Milkshakes and Morphine: A Memoir of Love and Loss,'

Vintage Disco

Our Vintage Disco on 3rd February was a fabulous night with music from the 60s, 70s and 80s blasting out. Thanks go to Jason and Petar for the great tunes throughout the evening, and to the other volunteers, Vicki, Tim, Phil, Julie T, Alice, Stephen and Maureen who were brilliant. As well as having a great night out we managed to raise about £800 which will go towards the fundraising campaign we will be starting soon to secure a 25 year tenure on the building (at a cost of £250,000).

A mooted theme for the next dance event is a 'New Romantics' theme, let us have any other ideas you may have and we will throw them into the mix.

Hustings

For the local elections on Thursday 3rd May we intend putting on a Hustings. We will be inviting candidates once we have the final list from Camden. It is always an interesting event hearing what candidates have to say, so please book a slot in your diary, it will be an evening event. More details will be given when we have them, we will put details on our website and in 'On the Hill' magazine.

Music and Rhyme Time

A sing-along class for under 4s. The class takes place every Tuesday and Thursday at 4.30pm with Louise. A very friendly class, which costs £1 only, no need to book, just drop in.

Life Drawing Class

The life drawing class happens every Thursday from 7pm to 9.30pm. The class costs £7, just turn up, bring your paper and materials and get going. All welcome.

PHCA Bar

Don't forget, every Sunday our Bar opens for cut price drinks, pool and good company.
